

Grow Local, Grow Vocal

CALLING ALL POETS AND LOVERS OF LOCAL PRODUCE

Together Artsreach and Dorset Food & Drink are seeking to commission a poet to help us celebrate Dorset's outstanding local food and drink producers, and to acknowledge those who choose to shop local.

Dorset is well known for being home to some of the UK's most outstanding local food and drink producers, and many of these are embedded within communities across the county who partner with Artsreach, the county's rural touring arts charity. Grow Local, Grow Vocal is a new initiative that aims to creatively celebrate these producers, and the community residents who choose to shop local, particularly since the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic.

The commissioned poet will receive a fee of £300 to compose a poem in any form, which will then be printed on postcards, and distributed through a variety of networks across Dorset including food delivery boxes/orders from Dorset Food & Drink producers.

When Covid restrictions allow, a second fee will be given for the commissioned poet to perform the poem on the doorstep of customers receiving deliveries from Dorset Food & Drink Producers, over a pre-agreed number of days, as a small gesture to combat the loneliness experienced. A short film of the commissioned poet performing the poem will also be captured as part of the project.

WHAT IS THE COMMISSION?

- To compose a poem of minimum 20 lines that celebrates Dorset's local food and drink producers and expresses appreciation to those who have chosen to shop locally. We would like the poem to have a light-hearted approach to reducing food miles/carbon emissions and in particular reduction in plastic and waste packaging and plastics. It should also give praise and thanks to those who buy local and mention some of the Dorset place names and produce
- The commissioned poet will be required to accompany local producers on a food delivery round and perform the poem on customers doorsteps as a thank you for shopping local (3 producers, 5 customers each, over 3 days)
- To be captured performing the film on camera as part of the doorstep performances.
